Final Note by the First Member of Council.

Subject:—

Leave to Mr. A.B.Mackintosh, Professor of English Maharaja's College, Mysore.

Mr. A.B.Mackintosh, Professor of English, Maharaja's College, Mysore, was granted extraordinary leave without allowances from the 25th February 1920 up to the commencement of the summer vacation with permission to utilize the summer vacation in continuation of the leave as it was not possible to allow him more than three months' special leave under the Mysore Service Regulations.

S

Mr. Mackintosh has now represented that owing to ill-health he will not be able to return to Mysore in July and that passages up to the end of August are being rapidly filled up.

T

The subject of sanctioning him further leave was considered in Council and they are of opinion that Mr. Mackintosh may be granted an extension of leave for three months.

Page 11 of Office Notes

The Comptroller who was consulted in the matter states that Mr. Mackintosh can be granted only furlough on Medical Certificate for the period from the commencement of summer vacation to the date of his joining his duty, as absence at the end of the vacation owing to illness should be treated including the vacation as one kind leave.

U

Under the circumstances, I recommend that Mr. Mackintosh may be granted furlough on Medical Certificate from the commencement of the summer

summer vacation up to the end of September, 1920. The above proposal may be graciously sanctioned.

Sir,

With reference to Government Notification No. 1235/C.B. 154-19-8 dated 2nd instant sanctioning special leave for 6 weeks with effect from 23rd February 1920, I am directed to state as follows:--

1. Article 225 Mysore Service Regulations contemplates the grant of special leave only when taken by itself and not in combination with other leave or vacation. This is regulated by Articles 191, 150 Mysore Service Regulations, according to which the leave may be prefixed or affixed provided it is not more nor less than 3 months to make up a total period of 6 months in all. The grant of the leave as at present sanctioned does not therefore appear to be strictly in accordance with the rules.

2. This is borne out by the latest letter of Mr. Mackintosh under date 1st instant (copy of which herewith submitted) in which, he states, that after a discussion with the Financial Secretary, he wishes to combine extra-ordinary leave instead of special leave under Article 191. Even this combicombination cannot be considered admissible under Article 191 alone. Articles 150, 191 and 236 will have to be read together and special sanction accorded for permitting him to prefix "extra-ordinary" leave for less than 3 months with 3 months' vacation, beginning from 1st April next, otherwise the whole period will have to be treated as "special" leave on half average salary.

3. I am to add that Mr. Mackintosh has availed himself of the leave from the 25th ultimo and not 23rd.

4. I am further directed to state that such inconsistencies and inconveniences could have been avoided ~~and~~ if Mr. Mackintosh had, instead of approaching the Government and the Financial Secretary directly without the knowledge of the University Office, called at this office as requested in this office D.O. letter No. 8542 dated 13th ultimo for getting the matter elucidated.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Issued

Dear Sir,

Referring to your letter No. 9590 dated the 18th March 1920 pointing out certain deviations from the Mysore Service Regulations in connection with the grant of six weeks' special leave to Mr. A. B. Mackintosh, Professor of English, Maharaja's College, Mysore, and stating that such inconsistencies and inconveniences could have been avoided if Mr. Mackintosh had, instead of approaching the Government and Financial Secretary directly without the knowledge of the University Offic called at that office for getting the matter elucidated, I am desired to state as follows:

The question of combining extraordinary leave which comes under long leave, can be combined with Vacation and admissible under the rules; in regard to the grant of combined leave for a period of less than six months, Government are at liberty to relax the condition governing such combination if they are so disposed as they have actually done in this case.

As regards the statement that Mr. Mackintosh approached Government and the Financial Secretary without the knowledge of the University, there is no question of his having come up before Government without the knowledge of the University as he had applied for the leave through the Department Office.

The facts relating to Mr. Mackintosh's discussion with the Fin. Secy. are as given below:

He had booked his passage and came to see me on the last day on which he had to leave saying that he had received ~~me~~ no communications from the University. I informed him of the orders that ~~had been~~ were issued. Just then the Financial Secretary happened to come to my room and I asked him whether there was any solution to the difficulty that confronted Mr. Mackintosh, in case he took special leave, of being debarred from taking similar leave for six months according to the rules. The Financial Secretary suggested what seemed to him to be the best solution.

It will be clear from the circumstances set forth above ~~that the University are under a misapprehension as to the whole matter.~~ that Mr Mackintosh & the Fin. Secy only casually ~~& not~~ and that he did not ~~attempt~~ last with the intention of making any direct representation.

Yours sincerely,

Secy. E. & A.
